A room rental dwelling lease is a legal agreement between a landlord (or primary tenant) and a tenant who rents a single room within a property. These agreements are governed by Maryland state law, local regulations, and specific provisions outlined in the lease.

Key features include:

- Shared Living Spaces: Common areas are used jointly with other tenants or the landlord.
- Room-Specific Lease Terms: The agreement specifies rent, duration, rules, and responsibilities for the individual room.
- Variable Landlord-Tenant Dynamics: The landlord may own multiple properties or rent out rooms within their primary residence.

Types of Room Rental Arrangements

In Montgomery County, room rentals typically fall into several categories:

- Primary Residence Rentals: Landlords rent out individual rooms in their own homes, often to students or short-term visitors.
- Multi-Unit Buildings: Property owners rent individual rooms within apartment complexes or multi-family units.
- Boarding Houses or Rooming Houses: These are larger structures with multiple tenants, sometimes regulated under different licensing requirements.

Legal Framework Governing Room Rentals in Montgomery County

Understanding the legal landscape is crucial for both tenants and landlords. While Maryland state law provides the overarching legal context, Montgomery County has additional ordinances and regulations.
