This article provides a comprehensive guide to the answer key for making connections at the intermediate level, offering practical strategies, examples, and tips to help students excel in their learning journey.

Understanding Making Connections in Reading Comprehension

Making connections is a metacognitive strategy that involves linking new information to what learners already know. This process helps students comprehend, remember, and apply what they have learned more effectively. There are three primary types of connections:

1. Text-to-Self Connections

These involve relating the content of a reading passage to personal experiences or feelings. For example, a student might connect a story about friendship to their own friendships.
